

Ron Fogue of Pittsford was recently promoted to Director of Food Services at Cherry Ridge in Webster. His new responsibilities include overseeing the preparation and serving of meals in Cherry Ridge's assisted living and memory care dining rooms, and overseeing operations of the independent living retail café. He has been employed at St. Ann's Community for four years, and previously worked as the Assistant Director of Food and Nutrition at St. Ann's Home and The Heritage in Irondequoit.

St. Ann's Community is one of Rochester's largest private employers and provides a varied range of services and care levels designed to meet the individual needs of older adults. St. Ann's includes two licensed and certified skilled nursing facilities, medical and social adult day programs, independent retirement housing, a transitional care program, assisted living and specialized dementia care, hospice care and a geriatric outpatient primary care practice located on two campuses in the Greater Rochester area.
